Collaboration Award

Conferred to

Luis Palacios

Leverages the power of our network by learning from others and teaching others. Works with others to identify and implement best practices on a larger scale. Enables sustained growth and local successes by standardizing and optimizing shared business processes. Is committed to the organization's success and puts the needs of the organization ahead of the own individual or department needs. Believes and demonstrates that we are stronger as a team than as individuals.

Presented on December 2016
